Dear Mark:

I think you have made a wise decision about the January Workshop. I really doubt if much will come from it. I have enjoyed writing my five-minute reaction to Harry Pickup's paper, copies of which I have enclosed. I don't know how I can get everything I need to say in five minutes and even with the amount of material I have written a tremendous number of things with which I wanted to disagree.

Unfortunately, I have just been reminded by a friend of mine in Atlanta, Georgia of a commitment I made more than a year ago to have him stay with us during the ACC Lestureship. This man is a converted Roman Catholic Priest who will be coming to Abilene for the first time and needs some special attention. In view of this, and in view of the commitments Sue has during the week, we won't be able to keep anyone else. I have talked with Lula and she and John would be very happy to have you and Sara stay with them.

You should feel very free to let us know how many of your family will be coming. I regret that you can't stay with us due to this prior commitment that I simply had forgotten. Please do not hesitate, however, to let us know your needs and we will be happy to find a good place for you. If only you and Sara are coming, I am sure that you would enjoy being at John and Lula's.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
