Dear Bill:

I look forward to my new work with the Sweet Publishing Company and especially the opportunities to work with you. I have always admired your professional skill and your deep commitment to Jesus Christ. I hope that mutual opportunities for service will draw us together many times in the future.

I will also be attending school full time while in Austin. This means that my first year or two with the Sweet Publishing Company is not going to be too explosive. I will simply try to learn the business and give some general direction to what happens. Please feel free to offer advice and suggestions at any point along the way. Give my love and respect to Jimmy. The next time I'm in Southern California I'll look forward to being with you again.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John:

Welcome to the Fourth Estate! I just received the April 26 Chronicle and was surprised and thrilled to see the result of what I'm sure has taken a lot of soul-searching and prayer.

I know you realize that this move will not get you off the firing line and I admire you for that. Anyone with your zeal and devotion to the Lord can't really be anywhere else. And I'm also sure these characteristics will bring a new and exciting dimension to the paper.

John, I'm proud to have a small part in this enterprise with you and hope that I may be able to help a bit in making it an even greater force for the cause you love so much.

May God bless you and your family in this new venture, dear friend.

Sincerely,

Bill
