Dear Ron:

C
Thank you so much for receiving my family and I into your city this weekend. Please convey to Joe and Syd and the others my sincere appreciation for the way I was received.

O
I deeply regret that our coliseum meeting did not gather more response to the invitation. If you personally have any suggestions you could make about my effectiveness or anything you can indicate that will make me a better proclaimer of the gospel, I will receive it with deep gratitude.

P
Thank you for what you are doing in the kingdom. It is a real encouragement to me to have your friendship.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
