Dear Bob:

It was a genuine pleasure to become acquainted with you during the recent National Religious Broadcaster's Convention in Chicago. I was happy to have arrived prior to the luncheon on Wednesday when you also had the opportunity to attend the convention. Marv Steffins had indicated that he very much wanted me to meet you and after doing so, I was happy that he did.

Thank you so much for a very interesting conversation regarding your own work, background, and present religious activities. I certainly appreciated your viewpoints in many areas and am glad that we could have a chance to visit, if but for a short time.

Because of our radio program's extensive coverage, more than 700 stations around the world, I think you can understand the excitement Marv and I both experience in working with such an effort. When our television coverage, more than 150 stations, is added to the number of radio stations the picture gets ever bigger. I have taken the liberty of enclosing transcripts of some of our most recent radio programs. I hope that you will get an opportunity to read them.

On future visits to Chicago, it will be my pleasure to see you again.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker
