Dear Dick:

How thrilled I was to receive your last letter and to know that all of your reports were good for the tests. I know that this relieves a lot of your anxieties and certainly gives you an renewed confidence in your physical well-being. I suppose none of us appreciate the health God gives until we face the possibility of it being taken away from us and in a real sense, that possibility exists at all times. But we show very little gratitude for this most wonderous of all gifts.

Your concern for my prayer fellowship about this matter has been a source of deep benefit to me. I am happy that you called to ask me to pray for you, and I can assure you that our prayers have gone up before God's Throne on your behalf and on behalf of your doctors and all those involved in your examinations and tests.

This very day I have prayed in thanksgiving to God for the good reports. I have petitioned on behalf of your wonderful family and the great future that all of them have in service to God and in fulfillment of His purpose for your life.

Give my very best regards to Laken, Suzanna, and Eleanor.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
