Dear Sister Wilson:

I feel as though I know you already, though we have never met before. I have the wonderful privilege of being John Allen Chalk's secretary, and after typing so many letters to you and hearing Brother Chalk speak of you so many times, it is as though I knew you personally. I am very thrilled to tell you that, the Lord willing, you are going to have the opportunity to meet Brother Chalk personally, at least.

On the 16th and 17th of September he is going to be in Benton for a Youth Meeting. He asked me specifically to write you and let you know, because he is anxiously awaiting the opportunity to meet you. After the many exchanges of letters, I know you will both be mutually inspired by this personal acquaintance.

I hope you are well and that you will have occasion to also hear Brother Chalk in one of his presentations for the Youth Meeting. Our prayers are for a great two days there emphasizing the work of the young people, and with the church in Benton. May God richly bless you as you help to stir the hearts and minds of your fellow Christians. You have been a real encouragement to Brother Chalk.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Helen McLeod
