Mrs. L. L. McDowell
1218 Carter
Jefferson City, Missouri 65101

Dear Mrs. McDowell:

I have just learned through Mrs. Frank Anderson of the sudden passing of your husband some time ago. I am writing to express my deepest sympathy to you at his death.

Mr. McDowell was a man whom I came to respect almost immediately, and believed him to be a very good man. I remember with genuine gratitude the interest he showed in me during my gospel meeting with the church of Christ in Jefferson City last year. I also remember with warmth the opportunities to be associated with both of you in Tennessee.

I deeply regret his death and send you my prayers and best wishes. Your burden is great and your loneliness indescribable, but there is One who understands and cares. God bless you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
