Dear Martha:

During the ACC Lectures I had the opportunity to visit with Randy at some length in my office at the Highland building. He, of course, was interested in re-visiting the Highland congregation and asked me many questions about my work.

He was in good spirits that day and I thoroughly enjoyed our visit together. He told me about his work with the White Station congregation and especially about the film-strip work and the progress being made on it. I felt at the time that he had a great contribution to make in the days ahead, but obviously God had another choice in the matter.

I send you my very deepest regrets at his sudden death. I learned of it while in a meeting in Phoenix, Arizona the week after Lectureship closed. Please be assured of my prayers for your own emotional and spiritual strength. I want to offer whatever help I can be in any way at any time. Your husband was a great Christian and a close personal friend of mine.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
