Dear Sister Pryor:

Accept my thanks for the wonderful hospitality shown to me in your home during our recent gospel meeting at Arlington. It was a pleasure to visit with you and to become better acquainted with your family. Please express my gratitude to Barbara and others who were involved in making the evening such a pleasant one and the meal so very delicious.

I thoroughly enjoyed my week at Arlington and know that you made a great contribution to the week's activities.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
