Dear Brother Thompson:

It was a real pleasure to become acquainted with you during the recent lectureship at Southwestern. Thank you so much for taking the time to write your note of appreciation and your interest in our becoming more personally acquainted. On the back of your card.

I look forward to the time when we can again be personally associated in some kind of situation like the one at Terrell. I deeply regretted that we didn't have more time to visit and to share one another's convictions in the Lord.

I have heard some very complimentary things about your ministry at the North Broadway church. I do pray that God continues to bless your ministry there.

Enclosed are some of my recent Herald of Truth radio sermons that I thought you might enjoy reading or using some way in your ministry there.

Anytime you have the opportunity, it will be my personal pleasure to hear from you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
