Dear Elizabeth Ann and Rex:

It was a real delight to visit in your home after the Sunday evening service during our meeting at Broadway. I was so happy that you invited the Stumbos to be a part of the same evening.

It was so stimulating to visit in your home and have the chance to talk about things of deep and common interest. I enjoyed being with Rex throughout the four days and only regret that we didn't have more time to spend together.

There is no way to adequately tell how much I appreciate both of you. I am happy and privileged to count you among my very best friends. I send you my prayers for your continued involvement at Broadway.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker
