Dear Ed:

O
Thank you so much for the tremendous contributions you made to the recent Sacramento campaign. I know there were days of labor that no body knew anything about that were necessary in order for the first service to begin Sunday evening. You and your men did an outstanding job. I sincerely believe that I have not participated in any campaign where the plans were so well laid and executed as in this one.

It was a real pleasure being with you throughout the week. My only regret is that I didn't have time to be with all the preachers more, but the hours were simply too full to allow any of this kind of fellowship even though I would have thoroughly enjoyed it.

Thank you again for all your encouragement during the week. It was a thwill to be with you.

Y
Fraternally yours,
