Dear Dr. Smith:

I write this letter in recommendation of Miss Diane Woodbridge. Miss Woodbridge worked for our radio and television ministry a number of years and displayed unusual talent and ability. I found her to be an unusually charming and interesting individual who watched carefully for details respecting her job and saw that they were completely fulfilled.

I have also known Miss Woodbridge in a personal and social way. In these connections I have witnessed only conduct of the highest type and can recommend her integrity and trustworthiness without reservation.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker
