Dear John Allen:

We appreciated very much your letter last week. It is assuring to know you had a pleasant stay in Hendersonville and a safe return to Texas.

Please do not give a second thought to the oversight mentioned. I can assure you I had not given it any thought. It was a sincere pleasure to work with you in the meeting and develop the friendship there. I trust during the future we may have the opportunity to cultivate this friendship.

I appreciate the information regarding the meeting in Atlanta and shall try to attend. Please remember to send a sketch of the activities involved in the retreats of your young people as you find the time.

Carol and I wish you the utmost of continued success.

Fraternally,

Will Vance
