Dear Wyatt:

Help! Help! Help! What do I have to say to say No to your very kind invitation to be with you in Dallas during the month of June. I thought I had made it plain in the last two letters that I could not possibly be with you on June 4th or the days following. Please accept my sincere apologies for being a party pooper!

If I could help out at a later date, please let me know. It's always hard to have to say no, and it's twice as hard to say it to you, you persistent fellow.

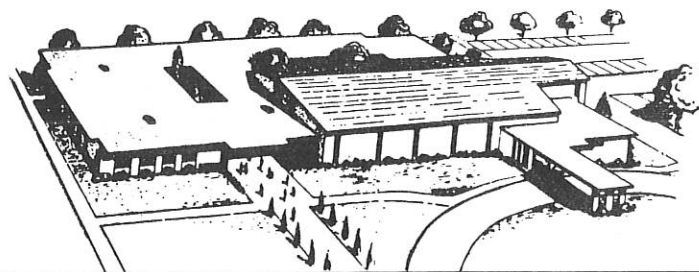

My prayers and best wishes for the rest of your plans.

Fratemally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

The Summer Youth Program Committee has spoken.

Their theme for the summer series is "A Dynamic Christian Faith."

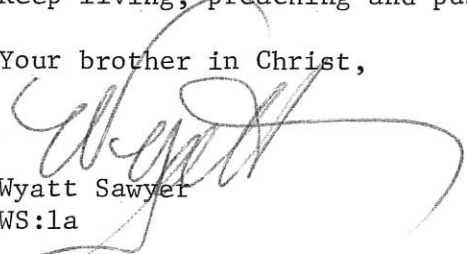

The committee suggests subjects to all ten speakers and yours for June 6th is, "The Tragedy of a Dead Faith." Use it or not as you see fit.

Also, use your own best judgement about your topics for Monday, the 5th, and Wednesday, the 7th.

Jim Duggar, my associate, will be in charge of this three night youth meeting, so I am herewith turning you over to him. (It's anybody's guess what he can do with you.)

Keep living, preaching and pushing.

Your brother in Christ,

Wyatt Sawyer
