Dear Sister McDonald:

I received your very kind letter of February 27, and I appreciated hearing from you. Please do not feel badly about having to leave the service. I am only glad you did not have the added burden of a fire.

I truly enjoyed my work and visit with the East Side church, and felt privileged by the opportunity to associate with all of you.

May God continue to bless you as you continue to remember Him by your faithfulness in your later years.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Brother Chalk

Dear Sir, I wish to apologize in leaving the church Sunday during your sermon.

As I was enjoying everything so much I happen to remember I hadn't turned off the heat under my pot roast so I rushed home and needless to say the house of full of smoke my roast was completely burnt up but if I had been a few minutes later I would of had a fire

I wanted so much to hear you
And as I am unable to drive at night as I am blind in one eye + in my 70s I won't hear you but perhaps the next time you are in our City I will be able to hear you I again apologize for so abruptly leaving I hope you will forgive me.

Sincerely

Leona McDonald
