Dear Harold:

I have no knowledge of the missionary whose name you mentioned in your last letter. I have read reports from him on various occasions and would have to assume that he is a good man. You might write Dr. George Gurganus at the Harding Graduate School of Religion for more information regarding this man.

My plans remain that I will be in McMinnville on Sunday, June 4, to begin our gospel meeting that continues through Friday evening, June 9. I am looking forward to being with you and with the members of the Arlington congregation. I hope during that week to get to see a number of people whom I can personally thank for their continued support of our radio and television ministry. Present reports of baptisms and response from listeners seem to indicate a continually increasing response to our programs. We really haven't begun the real work, I believe, that will bring even greater response in the months ahead. Pray for this ministry in which you have such a vital interest and to which you have given such unselfish support.

It will be a pleasure to be with you that week in McMinnville. I would like to keep my days as free as possible. I can understand if the brethren strongly insist on noon meals; otherwise, if we could work it out, I would rather have only one meal out each day at the evening meal, but I am leaving that entirely to your discretion. If I can have the days for study and work that I need to be doing, it will be extremely helpful to me. Of course, I can understand any visits we can make with prospects and others that may need to respond to the invitation each night; otherwise, I hope you can help me keep my days as free as possible. Thank you so much for a friendship that has meant a great deal to me.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Re: Arlington Meeting

Dear John Allen,

The Elders at Arlington ask that I communicate with you regarding your meeting scheduled at Arlington this summer. We are interested in verifying the date and your availability for morning and evening services.

On another matter, the Elders have received a letter from a missionary in the Netherlands asking for permission to speak at Arlington on June 4 regarding his work. They are not acquainted with this man or his work and were interested in any information concerning him, so that they might make a decision and answer his letter. His name is J.E. Krumrei, Rijksstraatweg, 513/I, Haarlem, Netherlands. Any information which you can supply about this missionary will be appreciated.

We look forward with great anticipation to your meeting this summer, believing that you will do us much good. God Bless You.

Sincerely,

Harold N. Roney
Minister
