Dear Harold:

Enclosed is the picture and biographical data requested in your most recent letter. I do understand that we will be having morning services at 10:30 with the evening services scheduled to begin at 7:30. I also understand that the morning services will begin on Monday morning and continue through Friday, which is the last day of the meeting. I especially like the idea of an area-wide youth meeting on Sunday afternoon. We might use as a topic "Christian Youth in Today's World."

I will probably be staying in Cookeville during this week. My family will be with me and they will want to be in Cookeville visiting many of our friends there. I will plan to come for the 10:30 service every morning and remain for the day and the evening service. This will allow us time for visitation, study and general activities of the week. Mr. Vandiver, you and myself will obviously have to have several important conferences in order to catch up on all our gossip.

Please express my appreciation to the couples who have opened their homes to me. I would be very happy to stay with them if it were not for the opportunity to visit with friends in Cookeville, as well as to spend the major part of the day and evening with the Arlington brethren. I do hope we will have a great meeting. I am praying and working to that end.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Re: Arlington gospel meeting

Dear John Allen,

We are looking forward to your stay with us June fourth through June ninth.

In making our preparations for the series, we need a glossy picture and biographical data. Please have your press agent forward this material to me. As you know, we are planning morning services at ten thirty and evening services at seven thirty. We would also like to schedule on Sunday afternoon, an area wide youth meeting with you as the featured speaker. If you would supply me with a topic, we would like to promote this as a special feature of the series.

Several of the young couples have mentioned that they would be delighted to have you stay with them during the series. Please let me know your preference, a motel or a member's home.

I am going to Denver next week and expect to hear Bill Banowsky during his lectures there. Come on over and join us.

I look forward to seeing you and will appreciate your help in these preparations. Keep the faith, baby.

Sincerely,

Harold N. Roney
Minister
