Dear Floyd:

Thank you so much for writing your thoughtful letter of February 21. I am happy to learn of the reaction of the young people at the home. There isn't any question on my mind but that teen-agers can detect a fraud quicker than any one else. Somehow God has given them a unique "sixth sense" to ferret out hypocrites.

Your reactions to, and observations of, Bishop Pike were enjoyable. It was unusual that you should catch the same plane he did to Dallas. I can see such a reaction after hearing of the remarks he made in Lubbock.

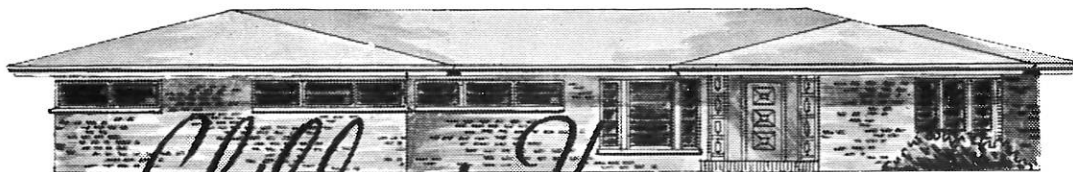

I can't tell you how much I personally enjoyed our association the other night at Rex Vermillion's home. It was very thoughtful of Rex and Elizabeth Ann to invite you and your wife. I was pleased to get better acquainted with both of you. I hope that in the days ahead that we are going to have many opportunities to work together. I send you my very best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Brother Chalk:

I have heard so many wonderful comments about your great lessons. Significantly, I was with a group of our teenagers from the Home the other day and they praised you for your great lessons. I have learned that it is very hard to fool our young people.

It was my good pleasure to share an airplane on Thursday morning, after your meeting closed, with one Bishop Pike. I thought you would like to know that the devil really has Bishop Pike. He is a very vain fellow, He was carefully looking for his "rave notices" in the Lubbock paper and then just as carefully cut them out and pressed them into his wallet. As he left the plane he looked through another paper to see if it also had a picture of himself. Unfortunately, I did not get to sit with him or visit with him while he was on the plane.

Best wishes to you and yours, John Allen, and may the Lord give you strength and courage and energy to perform the task which lies ahead of you.

Sincerely,

Floyd I. Stumbo
Assistant Superintendent
