The book -

"VOICES
OF ACTION"

Dear Fellows:

There is no question but what we will have a large circulation of this book and I plan to give ^{lots} of attention to the sale of it as it will help us a great deal in carrying the load of the paper (our per cent on what orders we may take from here.) This will help since the zip code law has increased our expenses over 300%. (Last year Vivian and I put into the work $5,935.07.)

The messages in this book will live on and I would like to encourage each of you to enter your best. It could very well be something you have used before, and this does not matter. Jimmy and John Allen have already sent their chapters and I have mine ready. Others of you have announced your subjects and copy will be coming, but I think we should set some dead-lines as they are always helpful even if not ~~am~~ appreciated.

May 1st - all copy should be in my hands.

Galley proofs will be sent you as soon afterwards as possible. You will not only be able to check these but you may check the corrected galleys. We propose a book without errors.

Since "Voices of Action" will be as much yours as anyone's (Alan Bryan will print it) you have the right to make any suggestions you may wish.

I have asked Bill Banowsky, Bill Young and Dwyatt Gantt to enter chapters as I feel they are due this invitation. We have no closer friends.

One other dead-line: MARCH 1st. Please let us know that you will meet the May 1st date with your manuscript.

Sincerely,

Jimmie
James L. Lovell

*My Joe and Sweet Sue;
I love you both - good.*
