Dear Jac:

Last night was one of the greatest experiences of my life. As my having heard you, you reached new heights on "Christ, the Answer for Our World." The first time I ever heard you I made the statement that I saw the Spirit working in you - I saw It again last night.

Son, you will remember my having mentioning it to you before - you not only need to be heard but you need to be seen. The things you say are all the more powerful when they have the backing of your expressions - your eyes, your hands, your whole body. Those who hear respond to the fullness of it.

I just wish that a million persons might have heard you last night and I expect to live until that many do hear and SEE you.

Vivian and I had 18 ladies for breakfast-lunch today and we shall look forward to your coming Saturday morning, I believe that you said about 10 but you can get here any time you wish before. I am asking Don McGaughey and Gary Freeman to join us.

Vivian and I will be there tonight and we shall be praying for you as you seek to lift man toward the Cross.

We love you - our blessed boy.

James

Wednesday: I did not get this mailed so will do so today or bring it tonight.

I am so happy that Sue will be here. I asked Prentice last night if he could come and it might be that you could have him bring you and Sue - I will check tonight.
