Mrs. E. L. Olney
Route 2
Clyde, Texas

Dear Mrs. Olney:

I have just learned through my mother, Mrs. B. S. Chalk, of Lexington, Tennessee, that your father, Mr. W. F. Rushing, is in an Abilene Rest Home. I understand that he is a brother to my great aunt Anna Chalk, of Decaturville, Tennessee. I would appreciate you dropping me a note telling me of your father's condition and the Rest Home where he is. I would like to visit him if he is able to receive visitors.

My family and I have lived in Abilene for the last eight months. We moved here from Cookeville, Tennessee. I am the radio speaker for the international radio and television program, Herald of Truth. Any information you can provide will be appreciated. I have, on many occasions, visited Uncle Houston Chalk, who will be 100 years old his next birthday. I send you greetings and best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

John Allan Chalk
Radio Speaker
