Dear Folks:

Thank you so much for a very wonderful visit in your home. The meal was so delicious, and the opportunity to be with you was a special treat. Sue and I both appreciated your inviting us and we want you to know how much our visits in your home have meant to us.

The week with the Lexington congregation was a great inspiration to me. All of you have made very special contributions to my life and I appreciate you deeply. My prayer is that God will bless all of you in your continuing service to others in Lexington. Thank you so much for a very wonderful visit.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
