Dear Brother and Sister McHam:

What a wonderful day we had together in your home and in the Richland Hill's worship services. I am so happy the elders invited me to be a part of your Missions Workshop. It was a great pleasure becoming acquainted with you, enjoying our meals together, and especially the flight over your section of Fort Worth.

I was especially pleased with the leadership and with the spiritual concerns evidenced by the membership of the Richland Hills congregation. Your ministers are unusually sensitive men who will continue to provide you great spiritual leadership. I am so happy to know personally you and your family and others in the congregation. Thank you again for being so extremely hospitable to me during my visit. I was able to make the plane with two minutes to spare, and my thanks go to you for a very fine day.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
