Dear Landon:

I have enjoyed immensely thinking about our conversation. How rich it was to experience a few moments of communion with you. I feel so deeply about all of the matters discussed and can in no adequate way express the thrill I experienced at hearing you voice your deep concern about the same things.

God has blessed you with an unusual power. You are sharpening that natural gift with spiritual sensitivity and perception that is unsurpassed by anyone I personally know. God will use you as He already has in significant ways to make an impact for good on all that you are able to reach.

The time slipped away and didn't offer me an opportunity to further develop our work with Herald of Truth. This is a confidential letter and I know you will so respect it. I can foresee the very significant involvement of your life in our work in the days ahead. Both radio and television offer you great opportunities. I know that these, along with other opportunities, will be in your prayers, as certainly they will be in mine in the days ahead, as God works His own purpose in both our lives. I would like nothing better than the opportunity to work with you in this great radio and television ministry, but as God has so led in the past, we surrender ourselves anew to His leading in the days ahead.

I treasure our friendship and hope that our mutual understandings will deepen and broaden to the better effectiveness of both our services in the kingdom of God.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
