Dear Mr. Sarchett:

Thank you so much for your hospitality extended to Mr. James Batts and myself during our recent tour of your facilities. Having the day with Juvenile Probation Authorities of Los Angeles County was a profitable experience for both of us. We came away believing that we have a little better insight of some of the problems facing the youth of our country, as well as the responsibilities those problems create for our adult population.

I thoroughly enjoyed seeing your unique approach to juvenile problems. I firmly believe that you are doing an outstandingly effective job. Please accept my commendations for the attitudes and approaches that I was able to personally witness during my visit.

Enclosed are copies of some Herald of Truth lessons presented some time ago on more than 700 radio stations that now carry my thirty minute broadcast. It is a pleasure to have become acquainted with you, and I look forward to further associations because of our mutual interest in young people.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
