Mr. Jim Samuels
Richland Hills Church of Christ
7060 Grapevine Highway
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Jim:

It was a real pleasure to be with you at all the services of the Richland Hills congregation. I especially enjoyed the opportunity to talk with you in the McHam's home. I appreciated your thinking about some of the matters being currently discussed in our brotherhood, and I wish you continued success in your school work.

You have a very wonderful family and a charming wife. It was a real pleasure to become acquainted with Jan and to enjoy the afternoon with you.

Thank you for your kind remarks about the lesson. I certainly treasure your judgement and appreciated your encouragement. I do hope that the future will hold many opportunities for our mutual association. I send you my very best wishes for your work with the congregation there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
