Dear brother Smith:

In my letter to the elders, I forgot to mention the amount of my expenses. The pro-rata share of my trip expenses for the Mayfair congregation amounted to $50.00.

Thank you for being so thoughtful in taking care of this. I was happy to have the opportunity of considering the possibilities of our work together. I was very cordially received by you and your fellow elders and I appreciated our conversation greatly.

My best wishes and prayers in your continued search for the right man for your work. You certainly have an excellent challenge for some good man.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
