Dear Dr. Parker:

I have read many of your writings with extreme interest and appreciation. I found your article in The Ecumenical Review, July 1966, to be most useful.

I am the radio evangelist for a national radio and television program, Herald of Truth. Our radio programs are heard on more than 700 stations, and our television program is currently being seen on 155 stations.

I would like to receive any of your regular mailings, and also any research in communications that you make available. Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker
