Dear Dr. McCoy:

Thank you so much for fulfilling my request made of you during our recent trip from Dallas to San Francisco. I especially appreciated to books on Roman Catholic thought that you sent in your letter. I look forward to reading all of them in the near future.

Your summer has provided you an opportunity to do in-depth reading, I hope. This kind of thing is always refreshing to a person of your background and interests.

I had the opportunity of visiting with Dr. Stafford North of Oklahoma Christian College while he was here in Abilene attending a special workshop at Abilene Christian College. I remembered you to Dr. North who was pleasantly surprised to receive word from you and to know of your present work.

Thank you for complying with my requests and for sending the catalog for Summer sessions at the Graduate Theological Union. I hope to take advantage of some of these opportunities in future summers.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
