Mr. Billy Parkerson
Village Squire Men's Shop
Village Center
Cookeville, Tennessee 38501

Dear Bill:

C
I, too, regret that the Sero Company has quit making the other two shirts that I ordered. I had looked forward to receiving them, but of course, understand.

O
Sue, was happy to get the news and to know that we wouldn't have a bigger bill to pay. Seriously, I want to thank you for getting the shirts for me. They did arrive in good condition, and I am enjoying wearing them more than any shirts I have purchased in the last several years. Enclosed you will find a check for $24.96. Thank you so much for all the effort you went to.

P
Sue and I send you and Pauline our very best regards. We are all in good health, including John and Mary Beth but still miss our many friends in Cookeville. Thank you for all that both of you did to make our 6½ years there extremely pleasant years.

Y
Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker
