Dear John Allen and Sue:

I want to express to you and Sue my sincere appreciation for your consideration of the work here. You might not have been the best man for this job, but I surely thought so and still do. The Lord has a great opportunity here for some good man to do a great job.

May I solicit your earnest help in finding the right man? We tried our best to give all the facts. I am sure that you will usually be able to separate facts from fiction.

When you are in Nashville Russell and I would count it a great pleasure to have you visit us.

Sincerely,

Nile Yearwood
