Dear Sue and John Allen:

I do appreciate your hospitality Thursday evening and Friday. You were wonderful to meet me and treat me so royally.

It was also a joy to know Mary and John.

I have detailed my visit to the other Elders and they are happy with our talks.

On the twentieth I will meet you as soon as you tell me your arrival time. You are cordially invited to stay with me, take my car and go to Lebanon. Then on the twenty-sixth we have made plans to have a covered dish dinner following the evening service at which dinner we will give the Vaughans a going-away present. We are looking forward to both the Monday and to having you speak for us on the evening of the twenty-sixth.

Again, thank you to all four.

Sincerely,

Nile

- 1) Call him - inform of my arrival in Nashville - ask if he can meet me.
- 2) will not spend Monday night with him
- 3) Have Cookeville friends - who will pick me up in Nashville after our visit -
