John Allen Chalk,
Abilene, Texas.

My Dear Brother:

a week after I had talked with you at Columbus,
I received an invitation to locate with the Church here.

Cecile, was in the hospital, and I did not get my mail, and that is reason for delay in answering. (She fell an injured her collar bone but is better now)

I appreciate beyond words your every effort in my behalf. I am writing the brethren in Miss.
advising them I have located here.

You will have my permanent address as soon as I can get a post office box, as I want to get Word of Truth in this area.

May God abundantly bless you + yours. My prayers are with you.

In Christian Love,

Harry Jones
