Dear John:

Thanks for your note and letter. It is difficult for all of us to know the real burden you carried day by day in the campaign. Being with you helped me to appreciate Christ and His dedication. I believe you have grasped this more than most of us and I sincerely mention you in my prayers to God that He will help you keep your concern.

For bringing Christ into sharper focus in your own life and showing Him to us--I am grateful. You have chosen the real dedication--commitment for today--totally. May God give you the strength to live this courageous way. And pray for us that we can also live this way. It's the only way to live.

Sincerely a friend,

Harvey Pearson
