Dear John:

We are so grateful for the fine contribution which you made to the Campus Evangelism Seminar in Dallas. I am personally indebted to you for the excellent exposition of the work of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer. I wish that the church in every place could have heard such a lesson. The spiritual concern and scriptural emphasis should commend it to any of the brethren. I was especially glad my father was able to hear this fine presentation. He has been an elder of the church for many years, but I fear that he has not recognized as fully as is needful the life-giving power which the scriptures affirm is the role of the Holy Spirit. He is a godly man, and he appreciated your fine lesson.

May the Lord continue to bless you in your service in His name.

Yours in the fellowship of Christ,
