Dear Mr. Chalk:

Following up our telephone conversation of February 7, with regards to appearing on our program during the Mid-South Funeral Directors Convention, in Memphis, Tenn.

This will confirm our agreement for your appearance on our program on Friday, May 5th. The time will be in the afternoon, about 2:20 P.M. at the Auditorium.

If you will advise me of your arrival time, we will have one of the reception committee members pick you up. If you will need hotel reservations, please advise me and I will be most happy to make them for you.

We are enclosing our check for $300.00 dated May 5th., which includes the entire cost for your appearance on our program.

It is a real pleasure to have you on our program, and we look forward to your address, "Death and Modern Man." (40 minutes time)

With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours

Milton Rutland

Dear Mr. Rutland:

I have definitely scheduled my part on your Mid-South Funeral Director's Convention for Friday afternoon, May 5, at 2:20p.m. I understand that I will have approximately 40 minutes and my subject at that time will be "Death and Modern Man."

Thank you for sending the check which represents the agreed honorarium for these services. It is very ample and completely satisfactory with me. I will look forward with unusual anticipation to being with you and with other good friends of mine at the convention. Please convey my best regards to those on your committee whom I know and please be assured of my interest in this appearance. Thank you so much for the invitation. It will be a pleasure to see you again.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
