Dear Mr. Westcott:

Thank you very much for your prompt reply to my letter regarding royalty payments for Pulpit Workshop. You thoroughly answered my question, and I deeply regret having caused you the necessary trouble in checking your records.

O
I had erroneously assumed that all payments had been deferred until the end of the volume year. This was my mistake, and I ask your forgiveness.

Thank you very much for your prompt business disposition.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Chalk:

In reply to your letter concerning the sermon outline that you contributed as Issue #3, June 19, 1966, we have found that payment of the royalty for this was sent to you on July 13, 1966.

The check was in the amount of $15.25 and was signed by you and deposited in your bank on July 21, 1966 as per cancelled check.

Please re-check your records and let us know if you have any further questions concerning this payment. Thank you.

Sincerely,
