Dear Brother Prosser:

I would like nothing better than to work with the Fayetteville congregation in a gospel meeting. Brother T. L. Salmon is a personal friend of mine whom I highly esteem. It would be a great opportunity to again work with him in such an effort.

My schedule, however, will not allow for any more gospel meetings for the next eight to ten years. Unfortunately, I have had to cancel more than fifteen meetings this year alone, and am in the process of cancelling that many more for 1968. Because I scheduled meetings that I could not hold, I have caused some hardship to a few congregations. This I do not wish to do regarding the Fayetteville group.

It is regretful to me that I cannot accept your kind invitation. Thank you so much for writing. I do hope that some time in the future, in view of a special effort of a week-end nature, I might be able to work with the church there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker

Dear Brother Chalk:

Although I have never met you, I have heard so much about you and your good work that we would like to have you for a week's meeting as early as you can come to us. We are happy to announce that we have Brother T. L. Salmons, Youth Director and Song Director, and he expresses a desire to work with you in a meeting here. We would appreciate an early reply.

Fraternally yours,

Earl C. Prosser
