Dear Brother Rbbre:

Thank you for your letter of April 19 and the kind invitation you extended as coordinator for the East Texas Campaign for Christ. I am deeply appreciative of the invitation, and it would be a real pleasure to work with Paul Epps and Jimmy Allen. However, my schedule is as full as I can allow it to be and still do the work I am required to do with Herald of Truth. Please convey my sincere apologies to the elders for not being able to accept. I send you all my best wishes for a most profitable experience.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker

Dear John Allen:

I have been appointed the coordinator for the East Texas Campaign for Christ to be held in the Gregg County Fair building October 13 - 20, 1968 with Jimmy Allen as the speaker and Paul Epps as the song leader. The elders of the area have instructed me to write you and extend you an invitation to come and be the master-of-ceremonies for the entire Campaign.

We would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

In Christian service,

Douglass Rohre
