Dear David:

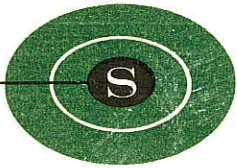

I am in research on our Vacation Bible School materials. I should have something ready for you by the middle of August. Unfortunately, I have two weeks in which I must be out of town between now and then, and thus the reason for setting this date up another month.

I feel good about the research now being done and believe that we can come up with something valuable by that date. I hope this does not place you in too great a strain.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

Glad you can contribute a sermon to our volume. The title you suggest, "The Essential Nature of the Church," is fine. We are looking forward to receiving it.

Give me some word on the VBS book. When do you think you can begin sending finished lessons? If it will make things easier for you, I could use the pupil material before you finish the teacher manual. The pupil book requires art and extra preparation not necessary in the teacher manual.

Cordially,

David Stewart
