Dear Clayton:

Thank you for sending me the full information on the book by Redding. I hope to get it in the very near future, and I know I will profit from it.

Robert Forkum is the name of the elder from the Central congregation in Miami. He is an excellent man and I hope one that you will get to know better in the months ahead.

It was a pleasure being with you at Harding, and I appreciate your kind remarks about my lectures.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

Just a note to say what a real pleasure it was to become acquainted with you at the workshop at Searcy. The book that I mentioned to you, "The Miracles of Christ" is by David Redding. If you have not seen this book, I think that you would gain a great deal from it as his writing is almost prose throughout.

I'm still looking for the thing that I mentioned to you about Marshall Keeble and I'll send this reference to you as soon as I come up with you.

Looking forward to seeing you again at some future time. Best wishes in your continued work.

Sincerely,

Clayton L. Speer

P. S. Do you remember the name of the elder that was at the workshop from Miami, Florida? His first name was Robert, but I can't remember his last.
