Dear Jimmie:

The April issue of Action is an excellent one. I was happy to see the guest column in the paper and appreciated so much the things said in them.

It was also with great delight that I noticed announcement of Action's "Four-a-Year" Book Club. Even though I have my own personal sources for books in my library, which now number approximately 2,000 volumes, I will be happy to be a part of this one. I know that many, many preachers need the kind of assistance in building their own working libraries which such a club can provide. Enroll me as one of the members of "Four-a-Year" Book Club.

Sue and I send Vivian and you our love and continuing concern.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
