Mr. A. L. Haddock, elder
Highland Church of Christ
5th & Highland
Abilene, Texas

Dear Brother Haddock:

I hope that you have received our subscription list which I sent a few days ago by parcel post. I have just received a statement from our mailer for running it off which amounts to $17.38 and the postage was $1--total $18.38.

I am enclosing a copy of the special issue and I hope that you do not attempt to read it until you have time to start at the beginning and read it all at one sitting. This will give you a picture of the church as you have never had before. I am anxious that every member of Highland receives a copy and hope that you will let me know how many you can use--all for free.

Please refer again to my letter to you on the 15th and I do hope so much that the elders there will allow us in time to send ACTION to all of your members.

I would be grateful if you would see that our subscription list is used for no other purpose than that of the Herald of Truth project.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

✓ CC: John Allen Chalk
