Dear Jimmie:

Thank you so much for so thoughtfully returning the one dollar. This was, however, a dollar that Mrs. Wilson from Lexington, Tennessee gave me to send to you. She definitely wanted to subscribe to Action and asked that I pass the information along to you.

I am interested as you are in getting as many of our readers possible to pay this nominal subscription fee which obviously can't even cover the basic costs for the paper. Your own contributions are large and continue getting greater for which we are all thankful. So I am returning the dollar and asking you to put it in the fund.

We all send you our deepest love. Action is enjoying a greater influence by the month.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

P.S. I am sure that trip back to Tennessee was quite a trip. I wish I had been along when Bill was introduced to some of your old cronies and hang-outs.

Dear Jac:

I just came from blessed old Tennessee--spent a day and night with my folks in Portland, Sunday morning worship with Ira in Madison and Sunday night with Batsell Barrett in Hillsboro. It was a great experience to worship again with those two boys at those two fine churches. Bill Youngs was with me and we had such a good time in the land of my birth. P

Here is the dollar which you sent me to have the paper go to Sister Wilson in Lexington. I shall be happy to send the paper not only to her but to any home of the church where you feel that the people will enjoy having it come. I want you to send me names and addresses of all such persons as I feel sure that once we enter that home the people will become more interested in the work of the Lord everywhere and that the paper will not personally suffer. Vivian and I love you and Sue very much and you might as well tell Helen that I love her too.

Keep in touch and God bless every thought and act of your life.

Sincerely,
