Mr. Walter Edwards
Church of Christ
Benton, Kentucky

Dear Brother Edwards:

Please express my genuine appreciation for the opportunity given me to participate on your recent "Training for Service" series. The short time spent last Friday evening with the Benton congregation revealed a dedication and an uncommon interest in the Lord's work.

The many reports concerning your efforts in Benton and my personal knowledge of your effective work makes me highly confident for the future of the Benton congregation. Please convey to the Elders this note of gratitude. It was a pleasure to participate on the lectureship and to make many new acquaintances.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
