Dear Dr. West:

We have received with happiness your acceptance for our Fall Lectureship, October, 1965. The people in this area are well acquainted with your learning and ability. We anticipate a great week with you in Cookeville.

I am happy to learn of the Extension Program to be offered this fall in Murfreesboro. I am definitely interested and request further information on this activity. We send you and the school our deepest regards and best wishes.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
