Mr. W. B. Richter
Tennessee Orphan Home
Spring Hill, Tennessee

Dear Brother Richter:

It is our understanding that the Tennessee Orphan Home will either soon be or already is equipped to function as an adopting agency. I am writing in behalf of one of our fine families here at Broad Street, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon E. Presley.

The Presleys have been thoroughly investigated by the State Department of Welfare and the Department has consented to allowing you to examine the files which they now have on the Presleys. This family desires to adopt a boy having at the present a natural son approximately 11 years old.

Any consideration which you can give this fine Christian family will be appreciated. Their interest in the Lord's work, their willingness to sacrifice time, effort, and money and their desire to have another child causes me to recommend them without reservation.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
