Dear Parnell and family:

I appreciated your recent letter and its comments greatly. You did a marvelous job with the Jowers' funeral. I heard people from all walks of life commenting about the excellent message.

I will be happy to come to Solo for a meeting. I appreciate very deeply your interest in me and your willingness to vouch for me so that I can come and work with you. Through almost 40 meetings, I have longed at one time or another during each of those meetings to have you leading the singing, as only you can do. It now appears that the best time for me would be July or August, 1964. If you could get the brethren together and make some choice of a date, I would be happy to hear from you concerning it. I will be looking forward to your reply. If another date is more suitable, please suggest it but any time in July or August will be fine.

Please give my deepest regards to your entire family. They have been a great inspiration to us and we continue to appreciate all of the good which you are doing.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
