Mrs. Fowler Clark
223 N. Dixie Avenue
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Sister Clark:

There is no way to adequately fill the position of service and responsibility which Fowler Clark was to this congregation. However, a more fitting memorial to his life and dedication could not be found than the placing of books in the Church library.

We have recently received requests from the following persons to place books in the Church library in memory of your husband.

Miss Mary Cummins
Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Luckhardt
Dr. and Mrs. Josiah Darnall
Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Cummins
Miss Clarice Cummins

By this means they wish to extend their profound sympathy at the passing of a Christian man.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
